

*“Our lives begin to end the day
we become silent about things that matter.”*

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

To commemorate the enduring and powerful messages of love, hope and unity that characterized the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Multicultural Council annually hosts a celebration that honors the diversity of New Mexico.

An integral part of the celebration is an annual essay scholarship competition open to high school seniors across the state pursuing higher education who use Dr. King’s stirring words, unforgettable images and actions to express their understanding of civil rights, diversity and community pride.

Students use their own literary, creative canvases to express how Dr. King’s broad messages continue to have a profound impact on society, as well as on their individual lives, and how those memorable words continue to motivate and inspire people of all ethnicities and generations. Applicants are urged to actively seek the input from their mentors in the education, business and social communities.

Please follow the scholarship application and essay guidelines provided here.

The application should be filled out and sent to the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Multicultural Council by US mail. Please feel free to make copies. All applications must be postmarked on or before September 13, 2010
